

Worship Service: FRIENDSHIP

Welcome: Welcome! It's so good to be together to celebrate faith and community today. My name is ____ and I'll be leading our worship time today. Today we'll be looking at the idea and value of friendship.

Please pray with me as we open our time together.

Opening Prayer: Great and loving God, we ask that your Holy Spirit bless our time together and to refresh us with your presence. In the midst of a world full of trouble and strife, we thank you for watching over us, guiding us, and especially forgiving us. Enable us to enter your presence joyfully and reverently, and let us depart today with the assurance that our sins are forgiven. Fill us, O God, with the peace which passes understanding. Amen.

Opening Hymn: Doxology, p. 1

Statement of Faith: Let us affirm our statement of faith by reciting Psalm 23 together:

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

² He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

³ He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

⁴ Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

⁵ Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

⁶ Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

First readings:

Proverbs 17:17: A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

Proverbs 27:5-6: Better is open rebuke than hidden love. Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but profuse are the kisses of an enemy.

Proverbs 27:9: Oil and perfume make the heart glad, and so does the sweetness of a friend that comes from his earnest counsel.

These are the words of the Lord; thanks be to God.

Jesus Loves Me, p. 6

Second reading: John 15: 12-17

¹² "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.¹³ Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends.¹⁴ You are my friends if you do what I command you. ¹⁵ No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you. ¹⁶ You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you. ¹⁷ These things I command you, so that you will love one another.

This is the word of the Lord; thanks be to God.

Interactive Homily: Let's talk more about friendship.

- What makes a good friend?
 - trust; loyalty; confidentiality; forgiveness; no gossip; listening; telling the truth; sticks with you through thick and thin; not taken for granted; not too busy; makes you laugh!
 - Marriage vows: "for better or for worse, for rich or for poor, in sickness and in health, until death do us part."
- What makes a not-so-good friend?

- bad influence; hot temper; easily offended; gossip; abandons you when the going gets tough (fair weather vs. foul weather friends)
- Tell me about some friends you've had in your life ...
 - Have you ever had a friend who lives far away, but when you see them you just pick up where you left off?
 - story of Jonathan and David in 1 Samuel 18ff
- Why is God called our friend?
 - always with us; faithful to his promises; forgives, loves, guides
- How are we a friend to God?
 - love him; love one another; obey and follow no matter what

Let's pray silently and thank God for the gift of friendship.

(Silent Prayer) ... Now let us say the Lord's prayer together:

Lord's Prayer: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever, Amen.

Third Reading: Aesop's Fable about Friendship¹

Two Men were traveling in company through a forest, when, all at once, a huge Bear crashed out of the brush near them. One of the Men, thinking of his own safety, climbed a tree.

The other, unable to fight the savage beast alone, threw himself on the ground and lay still, as if he were dead. He had heard that a Bear will not touch a dead body. It must have been true, for the Bear snuffed at the Man's head awhile, and then, seeming to be satisfied that he was dead, walked away.

The Man in the tree climbed down. "It looked just as if that Bear whispered in your ear," he said. "What did he tell you?"

“He said,” answered the other, “that it was not at all wise to keep company with a fellow who would desert his friend in a moment of danger.”

Fourth Reading: Quotes on Friendship

“I would rather walk with a friend in the dark, than alone in the light.” –Helen Keller

“Why did you do all this for me?’ [Wilbur] asked. ‘I don't deserve it. I've never done anything for you.’ ‘You have been my friend,’ replied Charlotte. ‘That in itself is a tremendous thing.’ –E.B. White, Charlotte’s Web

“Friendship is the hardest thing in the world to explain. It's not something you learn in school. But if you haven't learned the meaning of friendship, you really haven't learned anything.” –Muhammad Ali

“There is nothing better than a friend, unless it is a friend with chocolate.” –Linda Grayson

Hymns:

Blest Be the Tie that Binds, p. 14

I Need Thee Every Hour, p. 15

Closing Blessing: (Strike bell as you say the word “Lord”)

The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make his face shine upon you, and be gracious unto you; the Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and grant you peace. Amen.

Closing Hymn: Doxology, p. 23

What a Friend we have in Jesus,
All our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry
Everything to God in prayer!
O what peace we often forfeit,
O what needless pain we bear,
All because we do not carry
Everything to God in prayer!

Have we trials and temptations?
Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discouraged,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Can we find a friend so faithful
Who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our every weakness,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

Are we weak and heavy-laden,
Cumbered with a load of care?
Precious Savior, still our refuge—
Take it to the Lord in prayer;
Do thy friends despise, forsake thee?
Take it to the Lord in prayer;
In His arms He'll take and shield thee,
Thou wilt find a solace there.

“The glory of friendship is not the outstretched hand, not the kindly smile, nor the joy of companionship; it is the spiritual inspiration that comes to one when you discover that someone else believes in you and is willing to trust you with a friendship.” –Ralph Waldo Emerson
