

Worship Service Theme: Mother's Day

Welcome: Welcome! It's so good to be together to celebrate faith and community today. My name is _____ and I'll be leading our worship time today.

Happy Mother's Day (today or coming up)! Who here is the child of a mother? (Yes, all of us 😊) Who here has cared for children during her life? Today we celebrate mothers, as we remember our own families ... and our role in the family of God.

Please pray with me as we open our time together.

Opening Prayer: Great and loving God, we ask that your Holy Spirit bless our time together and to refresh us with your presence. In the midst of a world full of trouble and strife, we thank you for watching over us, guiding us, and as we confess our sins, for forgiving us. Enable us to enter your presence joyfully and reverently, and let us depart today with the assurance that our sins are forgiven. Fill us, O God, with the peace which passes understanding. Amen.

Opening Hymn: Doxology

Statement of Faith: Let us affirm our statement of faith by reciting Psalm 23 together:

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

<sup>2</sup> He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

<sup>3</sup> He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

<sup>4</sup> Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

<sup>5</sup> Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

<sup>6</sup> Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Amazing Grace

First reading: Isaiah 66: 12-14

For thus says the Lord:

“Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river,
and the glory of the nations like an overflowing stream;
and you shall nurse, you shall be carried upon her hip,
and bounced upon her knees.

<sup>13</sup> As one whom his mother comforts,
so I will comfort you;
you shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup> You shall see, and your heart shall rejoice;
your bones shall flourish like the grass.

This is the word of the Lord; thanks be to God.

Holy, Holy, Holy Jesus Loves Me

Second reading: Mark 3: 31-35

<sup>31</sup> And Jesus’ mother and brothers came, and standing outside they sent to Jesus and called him. <sup>32</sup> And a crowd was sitting around him, and they said to Jesus, “Your mother and your brothers are outside, seeking you.” <sup>33</sup> And Jesus answered them, “Who are my mother and my brothers?” <sup>34</sup> And looking about at those who sat around him, Jesus said, “Here are my mother and my brothers! <sup>35</sup> For whoever does the will of God, he is my brother and sister and mother.”

This is the word of the Lord; thanks be to God.

Interactive Homily: Let's talk more about mothers and what they mean to us.

- What are some words you'd use to describe your mother? Or any mother?
  - Kind, caring, hardworking, generous, funny, strict, no-nonsense, good cook...
- What sorts of things did your mother teach you?
  - Manners, hard work, how to sew, how to read, family culture and background...
- What did your mother do around your house? in your community?
- Let's think a bit more broadly: Is motherhood only biological? That is, what about women who care for children that they didn't actually give birth to?
  - foster moms, adoptive moms, neighborhood moms, teachers, older sisters ... and don't forget single moms who are raising kids alone
  - You can also "mother" friends, family that aren't children
  - You can also "mother" a garden, a wild piece of land, pets and animals, a home, a job
  - You can even mother yourself into better physical and mental health
    - "You don't have to be a woman to have Mothered, or even given birth. Mothering is powerful medicine. Mothering is about caring and nurturing, so Happy Day to anyone who has ever nurtured in the name of love."<sup>1</sup>
- There is also such a thing as spiritual maternity – what makes that kind of motherhood special?
  - Someone who cares about your faith and helps you to know and love God better – a grandmother who prays for you, a nun or Sunday School teacher who taught you
- Where do you think this quality of spiritual maternity comes from? Who is our heavenly parent?
  - We often attribute parental names to God: Father and Mother – because God embodies, even originates, these qualities: caring, loving, nurturing, safety, discipline, and guidance.
  - Jesus says whoever does the will of God is part of God's family, is under the Fatherhood and Motherhood of God. Why is that? What does it mean when you're part of a family?

- You act like one of the family!

... Let's take a moment to silently pray and reflect on blessing of mothers.

(Silent Prayer) ... Lord, hear our prayers. Now let us pray the Lord's prayer together:

Lord's Prayer: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever, Amen.

Third Reading: Thoughts on Mothers

A teacher gave her class of second-grade children a lesson on the magnet and what it does. The next day in a written test, the teacher included this question: "My full name has six letters. The first one is M. I pick up things. What am I?" When the test papers were turned in, the teacher was astonished to find that almost half the students answered the question with the word Mother.

A little boy forgot his lines in a Sunday school presentation. His mother was in the front row to prompt him. She gestured and formed the words silently with her lips, but it didn't help. Finally, she leaned forward and whispered the cue, "I am the light of the world." The child beamed and with great feeling and a loud clear voice said, "My mother is the light of the world."

A four-year-old and a six-year-old presented their Mom with a house plant. They had used their own money and she was thrilled. The older of the two children told their mother, "There was a bouquet at the flower shop that we wanted to give you, but it was too expensive. It was real pretty, and it had a ribbon on it that said, 'Rest In Peace.' We thought it would be perfect because you are always asking for a little peace so that you can rest!"

G.K. Chesterton described mother's work as being surrounded "with very young children, who need to be taught not [just] anything but everything.... Our race has thought it worthwhile to cast this burden on women in order to keep common-sense in the world."

Fourth Reading: To My Mother, by Wendell Barry

I was your rebellious son, do you remember? Sometimes I wonder if you do remember,
so complete has your forgiveness been.
So complete has your forgiveness been
I wonder sometimes if it did not precede my wrong, and I erred, safe found, within your love,
prepared ahead of me, the way home,
or my bed at night, so that almost I should forgive you, who perhaps foresaw the worst that I might do,
and forgave before I could act,
causing me to smile now, looking back,
to see how paltry was my worst,
compared to your forgiveness of it already given. And this, then, is the vision of that Heaven of which we have heard, where those who love each other have forgiven each other,
where, for that, the leaves are green,
the light a music in the air,
and all is unentangled,
and all is undismayed.
