

Worship Service Theme: Discovery

Welcome: Welcome! It's so good to be together to celebrate faith and community today. My name is ____ and I'll be leading our worship time today. This week includes Columbus Day, which remembers Christopher Columbus, the first European to arrive in North America, so we're looking at the theme of discovery.

Let's look at the word itself: dis + cover, or "to uncover, to find." That's where the intersection with faith happens: through God's Spirit, we continually discover new things about God, ourselves, and the world around us.

Please pray with me as we open our time together.

Opening Prayer: Great and loving God, we ask that your Holy Spirit bless our time together and to refresh us with your presence. In the midst of a world full of trouble and strife, we thank you for watching over us, guiding us, and as we confess our sins, for forgiving us. Enable us to enter your presence joyfully and reverently, and let us depart today with the assurance that our sins are forgiven. Fill us, O God, with the peace which passes understanding. Amen.

Opening Hymn: Doxology

Statement of Faith: Let us affirm our statement of faith by reciting Psalm 23 together:

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

²He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

³He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

⁴Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

⁵Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

⁶Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

First reading: A Short History of Columbus Day¹

Columbus Day is a national holiday in many countries. The day celebrates the anniversary of Christopher Columbus' arrival on the American Continent on October 12, 1492. The landing is celebrated as Columbus Day in the United States; in Latin America, it is recognized as Día de las Culturas (Day of Cultures), Día de las Américas (Day of the Americas), and Día del Respeto a la Diversidad Cultural (Day of Respect for Cultural Diversity). Hawaii celebrates Discoverers' Day, which commemorates the Polynesian discoverers of Hawaii.

Because Columbus was Italian, many Italian-Americans observe Columbus Day as a celebration of their heritage. The first statewide Columbus Day was proclaimed by Colorado governor Jesse F. McDonald in 1905. In April 1934, President Franklin D. Roosevelt proclaimed October 12, Columbus Day, a federal holiday.

But some things have changed as we “discover” other perspectives. Columbus wasn't the first person in the Americas—that Native Americans lived here first! And colonists from other countries made life very hard for the native peoples. Now several states and cities, including South Dakota and recently Vermont, Phoenix, Denver, and Boulder, have replaced Columbus Day with Indigenous People's Day. In 1992, the National Council of Churches said this about the start of colonization in America: “What represented newness of freedom for some was the occasion for oppression for others.” Something to think about!

Second reading: Matthew 13:44-46

⁴⁴ Jesus said, "The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and covered up. Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. ⁴⁵ "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls, ⁴⁶ who, on finding one pearl of great value, went and sold all that he had and bought it."

This is the word of the Lord; thanks be to God.

Interactive Homily: Let's talk more about discovery.

- What types of things have you looked for in your life?
 - Lost child, lost valuable item; looking for a job; looking for a spouse
- What is it like when you're looking for something? What do you feel?
 - Urgency, hope, fear, longing, adventure
- What about when you're not looking for something and you find it? Like finding money on the ground? How do you feel?
 - Excited, surprised, happy, grateful
- How do people find God? How did you find God, or how did God find you?
 - Grew up in the church; taught by parents; tent meeting; sometimes young, sometimes old; talking to believers; reading
- God's Spirit calls us to discover God throughout our lives ... and also to discover ourselves and our world. Here are some interesting "discovery" questions for today:²
 - Why do you think you are here? (list as many ideas as possible)
 - "If you are alive, you are here for a purpose."
 - What have you enjoyed learning? What do you still enjoy learning? (list as many ideas as possible)
 - "Life is a learning journey. The more we learn, the more we grow... and the richer and deeper our life experience."
 - What brings you joy? (list as many ideas as possible)

² from life coach Valorie Burton: http://www.cbn.com/finance/burton_fivequestions.aspx?mobile=false

- “Often it is the simple things that bring us the most joy. Make a list of the things that bring you joy. Then begin incorporating those things into your life on a daily basis.”

... Let’s take a moment to silently pray and reflect on God’s gift of discovery.

(Silent Prayer) ... Lord, hear our prayers. Now let us pray the Lord’s prayer together:

Lord’s Prayer: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever, Amen.

Third Reading: Matthew 7:7-11

Jesus said: ⁷“Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.⁸ For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened. ⁹Which one of you, if his son asks him for bread, would give him a stone?¹⁰ Or if your child asks for a fish, would give him a serpent? ¹¹If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him!”

Fourth Reading: Quotes on Discovery

“Some people, in order to discover God, read books. But there is a great book: the very appearance of created things. Look above you! Look below you! Read it.

God, whom you want to discover, never wrote that book with ink. Instead, God set before your eyes the things that He has made. Can you ask for a louder voice than that?" –St. Augustine

"The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others." –Indian lawyer and anti-colonial activist Mahatma Gandhi

"The first step toward finding God, who is Truth, is to discover the truth about myself: and if I have been in error, this first step to truth is the discovery of my error." –Thomas Merton, a Trappist monk

"Sixty years ago I knew everything; now I know nothing. Education is a progressive discovery of our own ignorance." –author and historian Will Durant
