

Worship Service Theme: Abiding

Helpful elements:

Green table covering (Ordinary Time)

An empty balloon you can blow up with your breath

Welcome: Welcome! It's so good to be together to celebrate faith and community. My name is ____ and I'll be leading our worship time today. Our theme today is abiding. That's an interesting, almost an old-fashioned word, isn't it? When you abide with something or someone, what do you think that means? (You live with them, are close to them, etc.) We'll talk more about abiding throughout our service and see how it relates to a life of faith. Please pray with me as we open our time together.

Opening Prayer: Great and loving God, we ask that your Holy Spirit bless our time together and to refresh us with your presence. In the midst of a world full of trouble and strife, we thank you for watching over us, guiding us, and as we confess our sins, for forgiving us. Enable us to enter your presence today joyfully and reverently, and let us depart with the assurance that our sins are forgiven. Fill us, O God, with the peace that passes all understanding. Amen.

Opening Hymn: Doxology, p. 1

Statement of Faith, p. 2: Let us affirm our statement of faith by reciting "The Lord is My Shepherd" together:

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

<sup>2</sup> He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

<sup>3</sup> He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

<sup>4</sup> Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

<sup>5</sup>Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

<sup>6</sup>Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

First reading: This is from the gospel of John (15):

Jesus said to his disciples: “<sup>4</sup>Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me.<sup>5</sup> I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. ...<sup>9</sup>As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. <sup>10</sup>If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and abide in his love. <sup>11</sup>These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full.”

This is the word of the Lord; thanks be to God.

Second reading: From the eighty-fourth Psalm (84: 1-4, 10-12):

How lovely is your dwelling place,

O Lord of hosts!

<sup>2</sup>My soul longs, yes, faints

for the courts of the Lord;

my heart and flesh sing for joy

to the living God.

<sup>3</sup>Even the sparrow finds a home,

and the swallow a nest for herself,

where she may lay her young,
at your altars, O Lord of hosts,
my King and my God.

<sup>4</sup> Blessed are those who dwell in your house,
ever singing your praise! ...

<sup>10</sup> For a day in your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere.

I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God
than dwell in the tents of wickedness.

<sup>11</sup> For the Lord God is a sun and shield;
the Lord bestows favor and honor.

No good thing does he withhold from those who walk uprightly.

<sup>12</sup> O Lord of hosts,
blessed is the one who trusts in you!

This is the word of the Lord; thanks be to God.

Interactive Homily: Let's pause our singing for a moment and talk more about abiding.

- Let's review: I wonder what you think it mean to "abide"?
  - live with, dwell with, be with
  - Also, think about if you "can't abide" something; that means you can't live with it!
- And when something is abiding, like you have an abiding love for your children, what does that mean?
  - It lasts, is ongoing, permanent
- What sorts of things live with other things?
  - People! We live with families, spouses, children
  - Groups of animals: sometimes funny names ☺ (ask if residents know any of these before revealing the word)
    - a group of antelope or buffalo is called ... a herd

- a group of ants ... a colony
  - a group of bees ... a hive or swarm
  - a group of cats ... a clutter or a nuisance
  - a group of puppies ... a litter
  - a group of fish ... a school
  - a group of geese ... a gaggle
  - a group of hippos ... a bloat
  - a group of hummingbirds ... a charm
  - a group of rhinoceroses ... a crash
  - a group of zebras ... a dazzle
  - and my favorite: a group of alligators is called ... a congregation of alligators (hmm, interesting church word!)
- What does it mean to be with someone? When you're abiding, or living with someone you love, what does that feel like?
  - Spend time with them; be in their presence; shared experience and values
  - comfortable, safe, enjoyable, joyful, restful
  - In the Bible, the psalm I read talks about it this way: "How lovely is your dwelling place ... My soul longs, yes, faints for the courts of the Lord; my heart and flesh sing for joy to the living God." I wonder why the writer of that psalm felt this way about being with God?
- What about fruit? In John 15, Jesus used the example of a vine and branches:
  - "The same way a branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me.<sup>5</sup> I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing."
- So if a branch is broken off, sitting by itself on the ground, what's going to happen to it?
  - Doesn't last long....
- How long does a branch last when it's attached to the vine?
  - Permanently!
- When we attach ourselves by faith to God, what happens? Where do we get our nourishment?
  - God sustains and encourages us, and causes us to grow and bear fruit.

Let's silently thank God for his abiding presence with us.

(Silent Prayer) ... Lord, hear our prayers. Now let us pray the Lord's prayer together:

Lord's Prayer: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever, Amen.

Third Reading: A Balloon with Life<sup>1</sup>

What does an empty balloon look like? [show the balloon] It looks lifeless. It continues to lie wherever you put it. It doesn't move. It has no power.

Take a "dead balloon" and do what God does: blow his Spirit into it. [blow up the balloon and hold it closed] What happens? It's full of air; but is it moving, is it going anywhere while I hold it closed? The balloon goes nowhere until that power is released.

Under the "spirit's/breath's/wind's" power, the balloon moves! It goes out! We don't know where the balloon is going to go; but you know it's going somewhere. Shall we see where it goes? Ready? [release the balloon upwards and watch it fly around! Can repeat this once or twice.]

After Jesus' resurrection, he gave his followers the Spirit's power. And Jesus did not intend his followers to stay behind locked doors in fear. God gives us the Spirit as power to move us out into the world – even if we don't always know exactly where we will end up.

Now, what happens when the balloon is empty again? Once again, it seems lifeless, out of power, flat, with no more "spirit/breath" within it. In one way we are not like that balloon: Jesus promises that God's Spirit will be with us and within us forever. But it's also true that every day, over and over again, God fills us up. Daily we return to God (and weekly we return to church) to receive His breath of life and to go out where that life takes us.

Third Reading: Quotes on Abiding or Living with Others

Living together is an art. It's a patient art, it's a beautiful art, and it's fascinating. – Pope Francis Different plants thrive together in a well nurtured garden. Just as they thrive, they pass on a message to mankind - God created us all to thrive with one another and planted love in our hearts for this reason. Let's learn to embrace each other, knowing Love is all we have to keep us growing and going. –relationship expert and author Kemi Sogunle

A friend is one soul abiding in two bodies. –Greek philosopher Diogenes

Amidst the confusion of the times, the conflicts of conscience, and the turmoil of daily living, an abiding faith becomes an anchor to our lives. –religious leader Thomas S. Monson

Psalm 27: 4-6

One thing have I asked of the Lord,
that will I seek after:

that I may dwell in the house of the Lord
all the days of my life,

to gaze upon the beauty of the Lord
and to inquire in his temple.

<sup>5</sup>For he will hide me in his shelter
in the day of trouble;

he will conceal me under the cover of his tent;
he will lift me high upon a rock.
