

Worship Service Theme: Easter

Helpful Elements:

White table covering

Strip of white lace or linen to drape on cross

Easter lily and/or other spring decorations

Large photo of cocoon and butterfly; seeds, pinecone, acorn, hard-cooked egg, and/or other “lifeless” things that turn into something alive

Special songbook for Easter

Choral recording of Handel’s “Hallelujah Chorus”

Welcome: Welcome and Happy Easter! Thank you for coming to our service today. My name is ____ and I’ll be leading our worship time.

Today we celebrate the most holy day in the Christian faith, the day when Christ resurrected from the dead. On Good Friday, three days ago, we remembered the sorrow Christ’s crucifixion and death; and today, Easter Sunday, the stone has been rolled away and Jesus is alive. Our white table covering symbolizes new life, and the veil on the cross symbolizes the grave clothes that Jesus left behind in the tomb.

Christians all over the world are celebrating Easter today, and they often use a Call and Response for their Easter greeting. Let’s try it: I will say “Christ is risen,” and you all respond, “Christ is risen indeed.”

Leader: Christ is risen!

Congregation: Christ is risen indeed!

[repeat pattern two more times]

Please join me as I open our time with prayer.

Opening Prayer: Almighty God, who through your only begotten Son Jesus Christ overcame death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: Grant that we, who celebrate with joy the day of the Lord’s resurrection, may be raised from the death of sin by your life-giving Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.¹

Let's begin by singing the Easter hymn, Christ the Lord is Risen Today.

Opening Hymn: Christ the Lord is Risen Today, page 1

Statement of Faith: Let us affirm our statement of faith by reciting Psalm 23, "The Lord is My Shepherd," together:

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

²He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

³He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

⁴Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

⁵Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

⁶Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Suggested Hymns:

Amazing Grace, page 2

Jesus Loves Me, page 3

Today we'll be reading through the story of Jesus' resurrection from the Gospel of John.

First Reading: John 20:1-10

Now on the first day of the week Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early, while it was still dark, and saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb. ²So Mary ran and went to Peter and [John], and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." ³So Peter went out with [John], and they were going toward the tomb. ⁴Both of them were running together, but [John] outran Peter and reached the tomb first. ⁵And stooping to look in, [John] saw the linen cloths lying there, but he did not go

¹ http://www.faithandworship.com/prayers_Easter.htm

in. ⁶ Then Peter came, ... and went into the tomb. ... ⁸ Then [John] also went in, and he saw and believed. ¹⁰ Then the disciples went back to their homes.

Suggested Hymn:

Jesus Paid it All, page 4

Second Reading: John 20: 11-18

¹¹ But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb, and as she wept she stooped to look into the tomb. ¹² And Mary saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had lain, one at the head and one at the feet. ¹³ The angels said to Mary, "Woman, why are you weeping?" Mary said to the angels, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him." ¹⁴ Having said this, Mary turned around and saw Jesus standing, but she did not know that it was Jesus. ¹⁵ Jesus said to Mary, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?" Supposing him to be the gardener, Mary said to Jesus, "Sir, if you have carried Jesus away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." ¹⁶ Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned and said to Jesus, "Rabbi!" (which means Teacher). ¹⁷ Jesus said to her, "Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'" ¹⁸ Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord."

Suggested Hymn:

I Know that My Redeemer Lives, page 5

Third reading: John 20: 19-22

¹⁹ On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being locked where the disciples were for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." ²⁰ When Jesus had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. ²¹ Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I am sending you." ²² Then Jesus breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit."

This is the word of the Lord; thanks be to God.

Suggested Hymn:

The Old Rugged Cross, page 6

Interactive Homily:

- Today, Easter Sunday, is the holiest day in the Christian year, because it remembers the resurrection of the Lord Jesus.
- What sorts of things “come to life” from something else? Think about a butterfly; how does it start out? (Use visual aids here)
 - Butterflies from caterpillars and cocoons
 - Flowers from bulbs
 - Chicks from eggs
 - Oak trees from acorns
- Does a cocoon or a tulip bulb look alive? No; dried and empty-looking.
- What happens when you put a seed in the ground?
 - It splits; the husk falls away; it transforms
- What would happen to the seed if you never planted it?
 - Nothing! It wouldn’t change; it wouldn’t become alive, transform into what it’s meant to be.
- What kind of power does it take for those things to go from looking like they’re dead and empty and then changing into something bursting with life and beauty? Do we humans have the power to make a seed grow? No...
 - God’s power of life! God’s life spirit is so powerful that even death cannot conquer it.
 - On Good Friday when Jesus died, it looked like death had won. But the empty tomb showed God to be the most powerful of all, even over death.
- I wonder how Mary and the others felt when they went and saw the tomb empty? How would you feel?
 - Scared! But in another account of the resurrection, the angel says “Fear not.” (Same words that the angel spoke to the shepherds at Jesus’ birth.)
- I wonder why the angels say “fear not”?
 - Because God is in control, no matter how things look.
 - As we see and believe in the empty tomb, our story is now faith, not fear. Not even death can harm us eternally. Our destiny is to be resurrected to new life, in a new creation, to live with God forever.

Let us thank God for the miracle of life in all its forms, and especially today for the resurrection of Jesus Christ, by whose victory over death we are given eternal life.

(Silent Prayer) Lord, hear our prayers. Now let us pray the Lord's prayer together:
Lord's Prayer: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever, Amen.

Suggested Hymn:
My Jesus I Love Thee, page 7

Reading: An Easter Prayer²
Lord God, we thank you.
From seeds, you bring growth.
From winter, you bring spring.
From despair, you bring hope.
From anxiety, you bring peace.
And from death, you bring life.
We are often not the Easter People that we should be,
living in the certain knowledge
of your great mercy and love.
Distracted by the world around us
we fail to hear your voice,
or hide when faith is challenged.
Forgive us, we pray;
restore the love that we first had,
a faith that can endure.
We will keep our eyes fixed on you, Lord,
and with you at our right hand
we shall not be shaken.

Suggested Hymns:

² http://www.faithandworship.com/prayers_Easter.htm

Crown Him with Many Crowns, page 8
How Great Thou Art, page 9

Now receive our closing blessing on this glorious day. Let's repeat our Easter greeting:

[leader:] Hallelujah! Christ is risen!

[response:] Christ is risen indeed!

How blessed is this day, when earth and heaven are joined and humankind is reconciled to God!

May the light of Jesus shine continually to drive away all darkness. May Christ, the Morning Star who knows no setting, find his light ever burning in our hearts—Christ, who gives his light to all creation, and who lives and reigns for ever and ever.³

The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make his face shine upon you, and be gracious unto you; the Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and grant you peace. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Suggested Hymns (optional):

To God Be the Glory, page 10

Doxology (reprise), page 11

[put on choral recording of "Hallelujah Chorus" while greeting people and collecting hymnals]

³ adapted from the Book of Common Prayer -1979, the Protestant Episcopal Church